While creating the new Fall 2023 collection, we took into account not only the global trends, but also the needs of modern parents: practicality and comfort play key factors in children's fashion.

Designers managed to create a perfect balance between everyday and festive clothes by combining sports and romance themes. This year, children's wardrobes is updated with relevant items that imitate the outfits of adults. All models within the collection are modern, combinatory – can be perfectly mixed with each other.
